I'm beyond grateful to be alongside a number of LaRues that have played in this game before me. Thank you to my teammates for all the memories and to all of Ram nation for your enthusiasm and support. I sure will miss Friday night lights at Herlinger Field. Thanks to my friends and family, especially my grandparents, parents, and step-parents, for never missing a game and always being there to cheer me on. Special thanks to my dad for instilling the love of this game in me and pushing me to do my best, and to Jamel Felder for everything! To my mom who is there for me for anything I need, whether big or small. I wouldn't be who I am today without your unwavering love and support. I love you more than anything.
